

Repression and deportation in France and Europe, 1939-1945

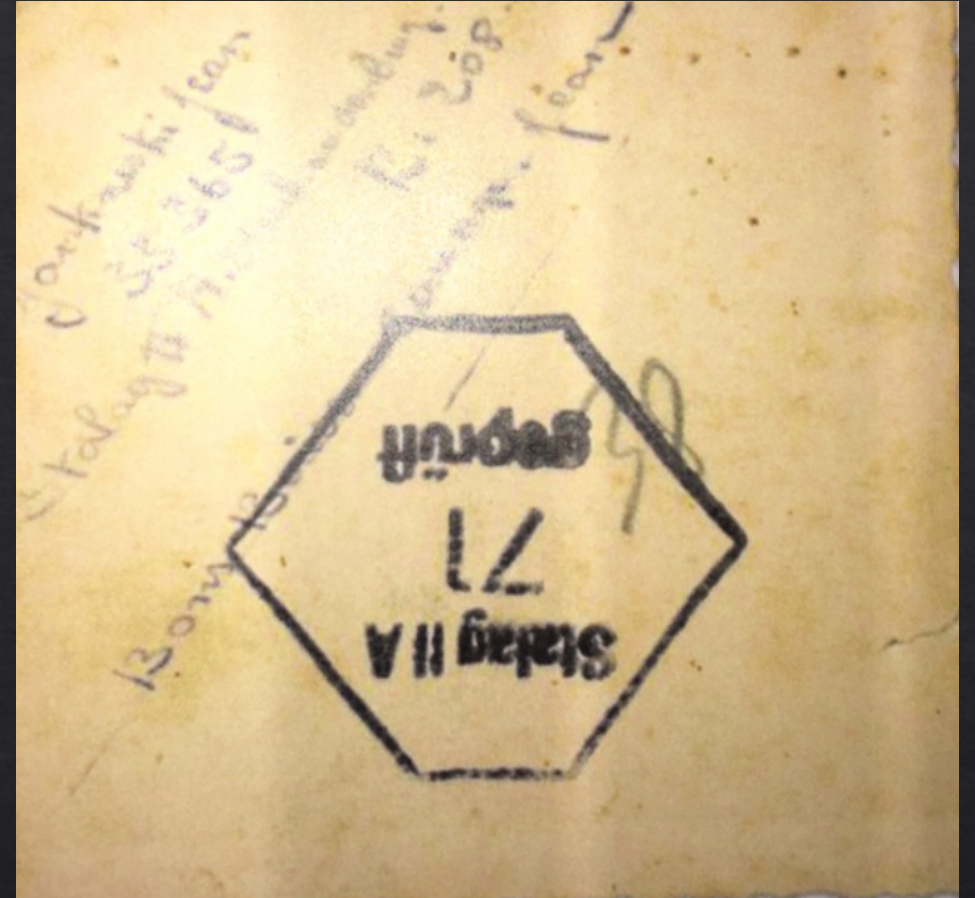

Jean Jankowski, an exemple of deportation and repression during the Second World War, 1939-1945

Annex 1: Jean Jankowski's identity photograph

Annex 2: Postcard sent from stalag II-A

Annex 3: Postcard sent from Stalag II-A (both sides)

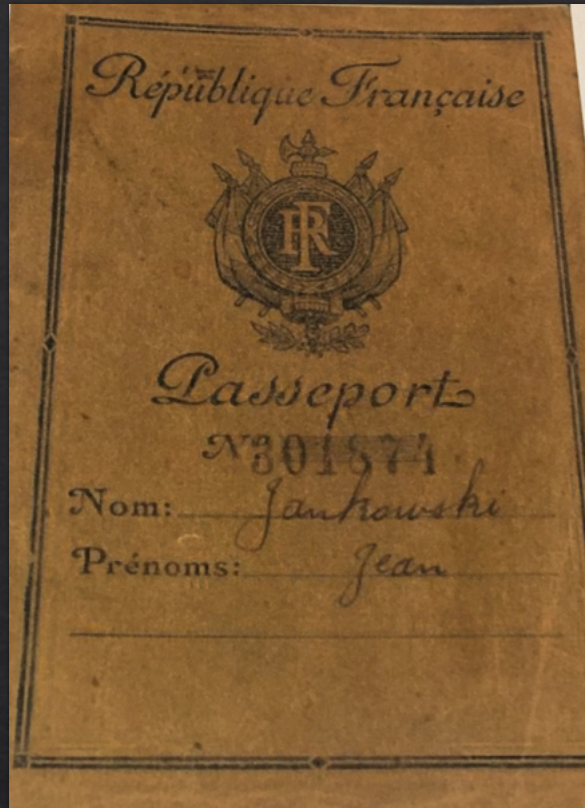

Annex 4 and 5: postcard from a photograph of John and his companions

Annex 6: photograph of jean and his friend

Annex 7: photograph of Jean thinner

Annex 8: Jean's French passport monument to the dead on which the name of Jean's brother is written (went to the maquis while Jean was hiding)